SCHOOL LEADERS WITH STEPH RYAN

Last Friday, Steph Ryan visited to meet with the student school leaders. This was an excellent opportunity for the leaders to interact with their local member.

EFFORT UNITY RESPECT ORDER ACHIEVEMENT

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Last Friday Steph Ryan, the member for Euroa visited us for afternoon tea and spoke with our school leaders. She provided a valuable insight into being one of the youngest members of parliament when she first began her career. Steph had completed a journalism degree but felt inspired to represent her community by getting involved with politics. The student leaders were given the opportunity to ask Steph any question, nothing was off limits. Then they were treated to a scrumptious afternoon tea provided by Mrs Penman.

Question: What is your favourite colour?
Steph: Today it is blue.

Question: What is your favourite animal?
Steph: Cows

Question: Where did you go to school?
Steph: Murchison

This week the senior students attended the Anzac Ceremony at Euroa Secondary College. Where Rachael Buerckner read a stanza from the poem 'Flanders' Fields'. Euroa Primary School was diligently represented by Ellie Bott and Will Creevey our school captains, at the local Anzac service. They respectfully displayed acknowledgment of past and present service people along with those who sacrificed their lives for their country.
